MODERN

Modern style means simplified lines and a clean, considered look. The exterior is generally very light, stripped of embellishments and inside features plenty of open space. Your Modern style home will showcase a vibrant style, inspired by geometry and designed to respond to nature. Historically, Modern style includes design styles from the early to mid-20th century.

CONTEMPORARY

Contemporary style builds on modern style, incorporating the latest in technology and techniques. If you're excited by exploring experimental and sculptural elements in the design of your home, you'll appreciate the forward thinking and innovative characteristics of contemporary style. You can incorporate a range of different finishes, materials and the latest building techniques alongside free-form features.

HAMPTONS

Hamptons style is timeless. Hallmarks of this east coast American style include the considered use of texture and beautiful proportions. Think soft whites in windows and weatherboarding, timber shingle roofing or hand-cut slate. Your roof lines will feature a blend of gables and gambrels with big open balconies. Designed for the coast but also perfect for urban living, Hamptons style allows plenty of sunlight and open space in your home. With your interiors, let crisp white, off whites and soft blues take the lead.

COASTAL

---

Coastal style takes design beyond the beach to create a home to suit almost any setting. Light and breezy, a Coastal home design is inspired by the sun, sand, sky and sea. You can experiment with different interpretations of Coastal style with neutral colours, weatherboard, driftwood and whitewash. Your home layout will feature open space and plenty of areas to relax.

INDUSTRIAL

Industrial style has no secrets. Interiors are on full display, left exposed rather than concealed. Stripped back designs, exposed raw surfaces and recycled objects create visual appeal while flooring gets back to basics. Industrial style is inspired by the areas of New York where old warehouses have been transformed into high end apartments. With an Industrial style home, you can experiment with bold colour and mix matte finished metals with wood and stone as part of your home design.

RESORT

Resort style is all about departing reality and slipping into a relaxing rhythm of home life. Inspired by the exotic colours and tranquility of the tropics, escape to a sun drenched world of fresh whites and natural wood elements contrasted by flamboyant florals and palm tree prints. It's lush. It's lavish. It's contemporary serenity that soothes the soul and leaves you feeling rested and renewed.

ELEVATION INSPIRATION

First impressions are everything and your home's elevation sets the scene for arriving guests. Surprisingly, not all elevations are exclusive to a single floorplan. Let us know what your favourite elevation styles are and we'll help you match them to the floorplan you love.

OUTDOOR LIVING INSPIRATION

Luxurious outdoor spaces are becoming ever more popular. With our love for Perth's Mediterranean climate, blurring the line between inside and out. Take your alfresco to the next level by adding a swimming pool with frameless glass fencing, timber decking, or built-in outdoor kitchen cabinetry perfect for outdoor entertaining with family and friends.
